Dear St. Rose Families,

What a wonderful PNR Talent Show and chili supper! It was so nice to see all of you as we celebrated the end to Catholic Schools Week. A BIG thank you to Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. Adams for all of their hard work. It made us very proud to see all the hidden and not so hidden talents of our 7th and 8th graders!!

Congratulations to Mrs. Butler (1st Place), Mr. Henry (2nd Place) and Mr. Poff (3rd Place) for winning the chili cookoff! We had 10 participants, which not only helped PRIDE with the chili donations but also made for a fun event!

We are in the process of getting our cameras up and running. The large monitor will make it easier to see the happenings around the school. We also had our middle school door replaced with donations from PRIDE!

On Thursday evening, several teachers and I will go to Union Station for the Celebrating Catholic Schools Values Dinner. This dinner is always inspiring to those who believe in the benefit of Catholic Education. We will come back refreshed and renewed to continue our mission at St. Rose!

Volleyball is in full swing. Come out tonight for a double header. First up, our Lady Lions will play. Then, stay for our Gentlemen to finish it off! Sounds like a fun night!

Thank you to Mrs. Dinkel for another successful Catholic Schools Week. We will continue the fun this Friday with Spirit Day where we will play our annual Musical Chairs! Go Lions!

God Bless, Mrs. Floyd
