Food for Thought

Celebrating Those Who Labor to Bring Us Whole Food!

As we wrap up the summer, let's give a round of applause to all who labor by growing, harvesting and preparing the abundance of food we enjoy in the United States. We LOVE our local watermelons, cucumbers, tomatoes, blueberries, zucchini squash, honeydew melon, cantaloupe, and corn on the cob we have been serving since school started in August.

How about those new lunch recipes? Your School

Nutrition Team is busy in the kitchen preparing new entrees. Both the Mexican Lasagna and Chicken Bruschetta (pasta, chicken, basil, tomato & parmesan cheese) were a hit so we will offer them again in September.

Coming Soon: National School Lunch Week and Hispanic Heritage Month in October.
