

PURDUE
UNIVERSITY

Extension
INDIANA 4-H

Clover Gaming Connection is an experience that fosters critical thinking, creativity, competition and collaboration which inspires confidence and empowers youth to design their gaming (board, card and/or video) ideas unlike any other learning experience available to youth today.

EXPLORING GAME MECHANIC TOPICS LIKE:

- Roll & Move - decision making
- Area Control - spatial awareness & anticipatory thinking
- Dice Rolling - probability & statistics
- Set Collection - mathematics & memory building
- Route/Network Building - goal setting & planning

October 22nd, 29th & November 13th, 2019

5:30 - 7:30pm

Johnson County Extension Office

Cost - FREE!!!

Open to ALL youth in grades 7-12

To find registration forms go to : www.extension.purdue.edu/johnson

Maximum of 10 youth accepted

Registration deadline: October 9th, 2019

Return forms to:
Johnson County Extension Office
484 N Morton Street
Franklin, IN 46131